CHURCH & CHRISTIAN BACKGROUND

By God's grace, Daniel was born into a Christian home to parents who love the Lord. He attended church from birth where he experienced spiritual guidance and mentorship from many faithful servants. The summer before entering sixth grade, Daniel came to faith in Christ and was baptized. He faithfully attended and held membership in two churches while growing up in Somerset and has been at Living Hope since 2005. Daniel's spiritual gifts include teaching and discernment. In addition to being members of a small group, Daniel and his wife host and lead a small group for newly/nearly married couples. They also serve together in the College and Kids ministries on Sunday mornings where Daniel often gets the privilege of teaching. Beginning in 2017, Daniel was ordained as a deacon and had the honor of being chairman in 2020.

Daniel is employed by WKU. He is the Director of the Burch Institute and a Clinical Associate Professor in the School of Teacher Education.

The church family will vote to affirm Daniel on Sunday, September 12.
